Volume II, Issue I

“Therefore the law is powerless, and justice never goes forth. For the wicked surround the righteous; therefore perverse judgment proceeds.” (Habakkuk 1:4)

“This question must be answered: is breaking your oath of office to the point of lawlessness an impeachable offense? If so, then Barack Obama should be impeached.” –Dave

Let me begin by calling for the impeachment of Barack Obama. I don't feel like doing a build up; might as well use the BLUF principle: Bottom Line Up Front. This last offense by the Usurper-in-Chief is for this retired Army First Sergeant, who spent 22 years of his life defending our Constitution, the last straw. Additionally, this Gold Star Father who lost his only son in Iraq defending freedom did not do so to see our Constitution run through the Obama shredder.

Article II, Section 2 of our Constitution states:

The President shall have Power to fill up all Vacancies that may happen during the Recess of the Senate, by granting Commissions which shall expire at the End of their next Session.

This past week Mr. Obama appointed Richard Cordray as chairman of the new Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, and three new members to the National Labor Relations Board. He did this under the guise of abiding by the constitutional powers enumerated to him in Article II, Section 2. The problem is the Senate is in session, only because the House of Representatives refused to agree to a recess as required by Article I, Section 5, Clause 4:

Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

Now of course Senate Majority Leader wailed like a scalded dog because he couldn't help Obama grab more executive power.

Nevertheless, instead of demanding Mr. Obama seek the advice and consent of the Senate, Reid falsely claimed the Senate was in recess. For this Senator Reid should be removed as Senate Majority Leader and Nevadans should be ashamed of reelecting such a rogue.

Our Founders would have never settled for such behavior from the executive branch. And the Bible is clear that such lawlessness will be judged by God.

FROM THE FOUNDERS

Our Founding Fathers considered King George III disregard of representative government so egregious they began a revolution against the Crown.

“He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.” Declaration of Independence - Count 10 of the Indictments against King George III

Barack Obama has shown open disregard for our Charters of Freedom. The Declaration of Independence is a list of charges against King George III for his tyrannical acts against the colonies. The US Constitution is a list of enumerated powers granted to the three branches of government to restrict our elected officials from abusing the American people from the bonds they just freed themselves.

And yet we see the man posing as US President making recess appointments while Congress is still in session. Mr. Obama has just declared himself banana republic leader by ignoring our Constitution. Something tells me that our Founders would greatly object to this grab for power. In fact, the Father of Our Constitution, James Madison, wrote in Federalist 51:

“The great security against a gradual concentration of the several powers in the same department consists in giving to those who administer each department the necessary constitutional means and personal motives to resist encroachments of the others.”

The House of Representatives should be, at this moment, writing up Articles of Impeachment for Barack Obama’s tyrannical grab of power. The House should pass these articles to the Senate for trial. Each Congressman and Senator should be held accountable for the voters on how they vote on these articles. These elected officials must give an account for why they voted for or against convicting Barack Obama for high crimes and misdemeanors.

If this open disregard for our Constitution does not equate to an impeachable offense, then what does?

FROM THE PULPIT

“If we are to strike at the heart of the dilemma of our nation, we must carefully address this question. ‘By what standard do we live?’ At the root of every lawless act is sin. Because the order and peace of each community is threatened and assaulted by lawlessness, we must deal with it at the source. It is sin, plainly and simply. Sin is the root of all social upheaval. Yet, sin is principally a spiritual problem. The result and consequences of sin is lawlessness and criminal action.” Pastor Paul Michael Raymond, The Reformed Bible Church In Central Virginia from the article “Law and Community: By What Standard.”

Pastor Raymond has “peeled back the onion” and exposed the root problem of our culture, now being manifested from the Oval Office. We saw Mr. Obama and the Democratic Party leaders applaud and align themselves with the lawlessness of the Occupy Wall Street movement.

We’ve seen the Department of Justice (DOJ) refuse to prosecute obvious violations of election laws by the New Black Panther Party. The DOJ has also brought suit against the state of Arizona for enforcing state laws designed to enforce federal laws being ignored by the federal government. And recently the DOJ has threatened a lawsuit against Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio for conducting a criminal investigation at the behest of his constituents.

Worse than the actions of the Obama Administration is the inaction of Congress. We have a lawless Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid and House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi applauding Barack Obama’s unconstitutional recess appointments by lying about the status of the Senate.

Let me make the same assertion Pastor Raymond makes above. Lying is a sin. Remember this? “You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor” (Exodus 20:15). I submit to you that lying to the American people is bearing “false witness against your neighbor.”

All our nation’s woes are the result of the putrid spiritual condition of its people. WE the People must decide “by what standard do we live?” Do we live by the rule of law, which includes our Declaration of Independence and US Constitution, or will we succumb to the tyrannical actions of Obama, the DOJ, Reid, and Pelosi?

The outcome is such sinfulness always ends in “lawlessness and criminal action.”

TO THE STREETS

Heritage Foundation legal scholars Ed Meese and Todd Gaziano, writing in the Washington Post, called Obama's recess appointments "a breathtaking violation of the separation of powers and the duty of the comity that the executive owes to Congress."

How do WE the People address these obvious unconstitutional actions of the Obama Administration? Here are some suggestions:

1. Write and call your US Congressman and demand that articles of impeachment against Obama be drawn up and passed in the House of Representatives and sent to the Senate.
2. Write and call your two US Senators and demand that Obama be convicted of articles of impeachment should they pass the House.
3. Fax your congressional representatives to reinforce steps 1 & 2.
4. Read the charges against Great Britain's King George III and Parliament in our Declaration of Independence and compare them to the Obama Administration and Congress' current offenses and see which are more severe.
5. Encourage your friends, relatives, associates, and neighbors to do steps 1-4. Congress pays attention to large influxes of emails, faxes, and phone calls over a particular issue.
6. Call your local talk radio station(s) and write a Letter to the Editor calling for Barack Obama's impeachment for his gross violation against our US Constitution.

Patriots, if our Republic is ever again going to return to WE the People, then WE must act. The only reason Barack Obama is reaching outside of his constitutional powers is he is unafraid of a spineless Congress. Both Democrat and Republican congressional leaders are either applauding or allowing Obama's tyrannical actions.

It is up to us to steel the spines of Congress to reel in an out-of-control executive branch, and if they will not, then they all must be replaced through the ballot box. That is the only way to return "to the great security" and "to resist encroachments" of one branch of government upon another.
