“Diverse weights and diverse measures, they are both alike, an abomination to the Lord...Diverse weights are an abomination to the Lord, and dishonest scales are not good.” (Proverbs 20:10; 23)

“Anyone who does not favor voter ID cards does so for only one reason. They favor voter fraud.” –Dave

It is fascinating that Democrats oppose something as simple and sound as voter ID cards and try to wrap it up in a voter's rights issue, an attack on poor minority communities, and a return to Jim Crow laws. For argument sake, lets take this at face value as true.

Why aren't Democrats screaming about ID card requirements for food stamps?

Why aren't Democrats screaming about ID card requirements for welfare checks or Medicaid support?

Why aren't Democrats screaming about driver's license requirements?

Leading the way in the liberal hyperbole as they are wont to do is the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU). They describe voter ID card legislation as “voter suppression laws.” This fear-mongering is beyond loathsome; it is seditious.

Is that too extreme of a charge?

Perhaps, but I believe it falls under the law as sedition. There is only one reason the Left opposes voter ID cards. They are in favor of voter fraud. And what happens when we have voter fraud?

The will of WE the People is annulled by rigged elections and the purpose of voter fraud is to gain political power through the electoral process. This is a form of overthrowing the government through force. What kind of force? By the force of a “stuffed ballot box.”

One thing for sure about our electoral process: it was meant to be the means that the citizenry were to elect their representative officials. If that process is corrupted then it is a means of overthrowing that process. Article I and II of the US Constitution outlines, by ordination of WE the People, how the electoral process is to work.

Voter fraud abuses that process and is, if we are to use the lens of aletheia truth—truthfulness that corresponds to reality—a form of overthrowing our government.

This cannot stand!

FROM THE FOUNDERS

The Founding Fathers mutually pledged “to each our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor” to develop our representative and republican form of government. They would in no way stand back and watch it perverted through voter fraud.

“Let each citizen remember at the moment he is offering his vote that he is not making a present or a compliment to please an individual - or at least that he ought not so to do; but that he is executing one of the most solemn trusts in human society for which he is accountable to God and his country.” Samuel Adams in the Boston Gazette, April 16, 1781

Imagine a conversation between Samuel Adams and an ACLU lawyer who is opposed to voter ID cards. What I’ve read of Mr. Adams I can imagine his having to overcome thoughts in his mind of melting tar and gathering some feathers.

Once overcoming the urge to tar and feather the fool before him, Mr. Adams would likely explain to the communist and godless lawyer what it had cost his family, friends, and fellow countrymen to give WE the People the right to vote. He would remind the by now squirming attorney of his nephew’s admonition:

“Posterity: you will never know how much it has cost my generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make good use of it.” John Quincy Adams

I cannot imagine Uncle Sam approving of any opposition to a voter ID card in light of his nephew’s quote. To do so would be antithetical for what the colonists fought, bled, and died. Protecting the Constitution from the abuses of man was foremost in the minds of our Founders.

Our Founders realized the sacred trust and solemn responsibility the people had laid upon their shoulders by electing them to Continental Congresses and the Constitutional Convention. John Jay, writing in Federalist 2, explains:

“This convention composed of men who possessed the confidence of the people, and many of whom had become highly distinguished by their patriotism, virtue and wisdom...” (Continue reading quote)

FROM THE PULPIT

“When therefore, a people unite in a form of government, and choose persons to rule and govern them and pledge their faith to be obedient to, and support the government...the Magistrate then, called to office by the voice of the people, and solemnly sworn, becomes an ordinance of God, and receives his authority from him, ‘by whom Princes rule, and Nobles, even all the Judges of the earth.” Reverend Daniel Foster, Pastor of the Church in New Braintree, Massachusetts, 05/26/1790

Election to representative government by the people was considered no less than a covenant between the elected and the electors. The colonies began with covenantal constitutions designed after those covenants found in the Holy Bible. To elect a representative was considered a grave responsibility. Why? Because the bible gives such examples.

“Moreover you shall select from all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.” (Exodus 18:21)

“... brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business...” (Acts 6:2)

Choosing our government representatives is a decision not to be made lightly.

And it is definitely not one that is to be corrupted by voter fraud as chronicled against ACORN or voter intimidation by the New Black Panther Party and ignored by the Obama Administration and Democratic Party.

So if WE the People are to return the voting process back to its reverential status, then voter fraud must be fought at all levels.

The integrity of this process must be protected at all costs. Turn the page to find out ways to start this rescue.

TO THE STREETS

So how do WE the People rescue our electoral process from the corrupt practices of the Democratic Party and its minions? A number of ways:

1. Demand your state representatives implement voter picture ID cards if you state does not already have such laws in place.
2. Volunteer to be a precinct worker on election days if you can. This is an important civic duty and any volunteer hours you can give to your local elections officials will be greatly appreciated.
3. Find out what the process is of confirming voter registration rolls. Many times you can get a list of registered voters and confirm these voters actually exist.
4. Support great groups such as the Voter Integrity Project in North Carolina. You can read about them at their website.
5. Recognize and reject front organizations that support and defend voter fraud, such as Project Vote.
6. If you're in a state where voter ID laws are being opposed by the leftists, be sure to call in to your local talk radio shows and write a Letter to the Editor making the points I made in "Unshackled" about the truth.

It is important that we understand that voter fraud is nothing less than stealing an election. It is an electoral coup d'etat where instead of power being grabbed through armed conflict, it is down by force of the ballot box.

We can no longer as citizens afford to sit back and complain about all the voter fraud, whether it be ACORN or the New Black Panther Party, and yet refuse to get involved. Only by putting God-fearing, strict constitutionalist, true conservative men and women in office, AND holding them accountable, can we rescue this great republic.

It's up to us...the time is now...and it WE the People who must make it happen!
