“The Obama eligibility case is more than just a “birther” issue. It is a constitutional issue.” –Dave

On March 2, 2012, Sheriff Joe Arpaio’s “Cold Case Posse” released its investigative report on Barack Obama’s citizenship eligibility.

Surprisingly, many news outlets covered the story, if for no other reason than to mock the report.

Mock it or not, the report is filled with aletheia truth that can only be further investigated or openly ignored. The latter is a dereliction of media responsibility and a violation of all elected officials’ oath of office.

What the Left, mainstream media, the White House, FOXNews, and Glenn Beck dismiss as nothing than a “birther” conspiracy is an all too convenient excuse for inaction. This is about protecting and defending the US Constitution and all 50 states’ constitutions.

The evidence overwhelmingly shows that at least two counts of forgery have occurred.

The official copy of Barack Obama’s long-form birth certificate released by the White House is indisputably a forgery. The same is true of Barack Obama’s Selective Service Card.

Arguments against pursuing Obama’s eligibility is it would create a constitutional crisis. That already occurred back in 2008 when all 50 states, the Electoral College, the US Congress, and the US Supreme Court refused to act on a clear constitutional issue. The crisis has been further perpetrated by the judicial system at all levels by its refusal to fairly adjudicate eligibility cases brought before them.

This is not only a constitutional issue; it is a moral one. A republic cannot stand if it will not enforce the rule of law.

FROM THE FOUNDERS

The Founders put the “natural-born” citizenship requirement for the office of President because they did not want a president who had mixed allegiance. Natural born status is giving only to children born to American parent(s).

“This amendment which I have offered is simply declaratory of what I regard as the law of the land already, that every person born within the limits of the United States, and subject to their jurisdiction, is by virtue of natural law and national law a citizen of the United States. This will not, of course, include persons born in the United States who are foreigners, aliens, who belong to the families of ambassadors or foreign ministers accredited to the Government of the United States, but will include very other class of persons.” Michigan Senator Jacob M. Howard, 1866, author of the citizenship language of the 14th Amendment.

In his seminal work Where’s the Birth Certificate?, noted author Dr. Jerome Corsi writes:

“Native-born” is a term applying to an individual born on United States soil. “Natural-born” was the term the Founding Fathers applied to designate a person born on U.S. soil to two parents who were each U.S. citizens at the time of the birth. Had the Founders meant “native-born” instead of “natural-born,” they would have written Article 2, Section 1, to require only that a person be born on U.S. soil in order to qualify to be president.

Obama supporters defend his citizenship status as “native-born” as though that is the same as “natural-born.” Even conservatives do not want to push the issue for a number of reasons. Chief among them, as Dr. Corsi notes in his book, is that Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal would not be eligible to run for President under the current law. More grievous to many conservatives is this would also make widely popular Florida Senator Marco Rubio ineligible.

So instead of either enforcing the law, or passing a new law to clarify Obama’s citizenship status, many in conservative media, politics, and pulpits refuse to address this issue. At Aletheia Group L.L.C. we do not punt responsibility when it come to truth and justice. And thankfully there are others. One such man, who is also a pastor here in Northwest Florida, is Pastor Carl Gallups of Hickory Hammock Baptist Church in Milton, Florida. Turn the page to meet him.

FROM THE PULPIT

“Happy is that people whose God is the Lord. Whether we shall continue thus happy will greatly depend upon our faithfully remembering the name of the Lord. According to the measure in which the religion of the blessed Jesus is honored and prevails, our land will be truly happy and our liberty secure. This holy religion establishes the purest morality, and inculcates the reciprocal obligations which members of society are under to each other. It engages men of all ranks, by the highest sanctions, conscientiously to fulfill the duties of their stations, and it is, without controversy, the surest pledge of Divine protection.” Reverend Dr. John H. Livingston, from his patriotic sermon, July 4, 1790.

Much is made in America about “fairness.” Some say it is unfair to deny native-born citizens to run for the highest office in the land just because it is in the US Constitution. Fairness is a man-made doctrine; no where in the Bible will you find the concept of fairness. What is found is justice. God is just and He demands justice and righteousness.

Our nation is riding the rapid waters of moral relativism in the River Fairness. The good ship America is head towards the Falls of Ameritopia (to borrow my good friend Mark Levin’s term). We have chose this turbulent path instead of Lake Righteousness.

Once the ship goes over the falls, the wreckage will never be repaired to its original state. Until we as a nation choose the Winds of Holiness and reverse course, we are headed for the falls.

A nation that tolerates injustice the likes of the Obama Birth Certificate conspiracy is one that stands against a Holy God:

“You shall not pervert justice; you shall not show partiality, nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.” (Deuteronomy 16:19)

May God have mercy on our country.

TO THE STREETS

WE the People must demand that the law of the land be enforced by all three branches of government. Here are a number of solutions to the “birther” issue:

1. Call your two US Senators and your House Representative and demand that Article II, Section 1 be enforced.
2. Call your state senator and representative and demand that under current law Barack Obama not be allowed on your state’s general ballot.
3. If you are of the opinion that Bobby Jindal, Marco Rubio, or Barack Obama should be eligible to be president, then contact your legislators and ask that the law be clarified and/or changed. There have been plenty of legislative propositions to do just that.
4. We need to contact the US Supreme Court and demand that they deal directly with this issue. They, contrary to many opinions, are just as accountable to WE the People as our the two other branches of government.
5. Do not back down from this issue when opposed by possibly belligerent or hostile dissenters. We must boldly stand on the truth. Sheriff Arpaio’s principled stand on justice is one that should be hailed, not assailed as was done by Glenn Beck.

If this eligibility issue is not worth defending, then we need to go through the rest of the US Constitution, beginning with Article II, Section 1, Clause 5, and black out all of the Constitution we think is no longer worthy of defending.

Our brave military men and women are on the front lines of liberty right now defending that very document that too many Americans are unwilling to defend here at home. If we will allow a usurper to take over the White House, what is next? Sharia law? A completely socialist form of government? The possibilities are unending.

That is why WE the People must act decisively and we must act NOW!
