“If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent perversion of justice and righteousness in a province, do not marvel at the matter; for high official watches over high official, and higher officials are over them.” (Ecclesiastes 5:8)

“While God Almighty is the Highest Official, WE the People are endowed by Him with certain unalienable rights. We have used those rights to give enumerated powers to our government leaders. It is up to us to control their abuses of power.” –Dave

The Obama Administration is amassing a heavily-armed police force that would make any Third World Dictator green with envy.

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has purchased 1.6 billion bullets of varying calibers, 7,000 AR-15s, and 2,700 Mine Resistant Armored Protection (MRAP) vehicles. I'm not sure what type of homeland security DHS imagines having to provide, but this is America not Iraq.

Until Senator Rand Paul and others brought an old-fashioned filibuster to the Senate floor, Attorney General Eric Holder and his Justice Department were of the opinion that it was legal to use drones against Americans on US soil. He included the use of deadly force. You will recall that our first ever The Truth Newsletter called for the impeachment of Eric Holder for his role in Fast and Furious.

Why all this militant posturing? Tyrants fear losing power and will use all means necessary to keep it, including deadly force. History provides encyclopedic examples.

President John Adams faced stiff opposition in calling for a standing army and navy. For good reason: the young nation had just thrown off the chains of tyranny of which were enforced by the mightiest military force of that time. Americans had a healthy mistrust of centralized power strengthened by a powerful military.

Those of us who are sounding the alarm against this open arms build-up have been dismissed as black helicopter Alex Jones-types. While I love a good conspiracy as much as the next tin foil hating wearing basement dweller, it doesn't take a conspiracist to be alarmed by not only an increasingly strong police force, but also an a belligerent, liberty-abusing administration. It is time to rally the troops.

FROM THE FOUNDERS

Our nation has evolved and grown and has great need for a standing army. However, a police force with military capabilities must always “be watched with a jealous Eye.” Our Founders rightly feared a police/military force loyal to its leaders rather than the US Constitution.

“A standing Army, however necessary it may be at some times, is always dangerous to the Liberties of the People. Soldiers are apt to consider themselves as a Body distinct from the rest of the Citizens. They have their Arms always in their hands. Their Rules and their Discipline is severe. They soon become attached to their officers and disposed to yield implicit Obedience to their Commands. Such a Power should be watched with a jealous Eye.” Samuel Adams in a letter to James Warren, January 7, 1776

Much of the argument giving by many police forces is that criminals are armed with military assault type weapons so they too must be so armed. Protective headgear and body armor, along with AR-15s are not the concern here at The Truth Watch. Police must be able to protect themselves while enforcing the law.

The issue is the seemingly innumerable government agencies with their own police forces and the equipping of such forces to perform combat on our city streets. What type of opposition is the Social Security Administration expecting to face that it needs not only its own police force, but also hollow-point ammunition?

Samuel Adams was concerned that citizens would agree to give up their rights to such military powers. In his letter to James Warren he writes:

“And even Citizens, having been used to admire the Heroism which the Commanders of their own Army have displayed, and to look up to them as their Saviors may be prevailed upon to surrender to them those Rights for the protection of which against Invaders they had employed and paid them. We have seen too much of this Disposition among some of our Countrymen.”

We may well be at this point in our nation.

FROM THE PULPIT

“To say that subjects in general are not proper judges when their governors oppress them, and play the tyrant; and when they defend their rights, administer justice impartially, and promote the public welfare, is as great treason as ever man uttered;--'tis treason,--not against one single man, but the state--against the whole body politic;--'tis treason against mankind;--'tis treason against common sense;--'tis treason against God. And this impious principle lays the foundation for justifying all the tyranny and oppression that ever any prince was guilty of.” Jonathan Mayhew, “A Discourse Concerning Unlimited Submission and Non-Resistance to the Higher Powers,” Boston, 1750

Today the Obama Administration, Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC), the mainstream media, and almost all of academia will say that we patriots “are not proper judges when [our] governors oppress [us], and play the tyrant.”

The SPLC is especially derisive of any patriotic movement to throw off the chains of tyranny by identifying such groups and their movements as hate groups. Here in Florida, my friend Pastor Bill Keller and his ministry is identified as a “general hate” group. Additionally in Florida identified as hate groups are the Catholic Action Research Center and Florida Family Association.

What do these three groups have in common? They dare stand on the truth of the Bible in opposing homosexual marriage and Islamofascism, just to name a couple.

Our unalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness is endowed to us by Almighty God. We indeed are to submit to government, but only such that is righteous in the eyes of God.

To see the Obama Administration, which is openly belligerent to liberty, especially religious liberty, amass the type of combat power in its various departments is cause for great concern.

No matter what the historical and theological revisionists teach, we are to be in submission only to those governmental leaders who respect the laws of nature and of nature’s God. To do otherwise “tis treason against God.”

TO THE STREETS

The enemies of liberty in our federal government are too numerous to list here, however we must identify and oppose them whenever or wherever they appear. We cannot sit back and allow the chains of tyranny to be applied and then hope we can throw them off later. Our Founding Fathers designed our Charters of Freedom so that we could take action BEFORE those chains are applied. So what can one citizen do? Here are a few suggestions:

1. Please invite your friends to join The Truth Watch. As long as God gives us the strength we will work overtime pursuing and defending the truth wherever that may lead. This newsletter is a useful tool to insert factually accurate points and counter-points into political conversations such as the Obama Administration amassing unnecessary military capability.
2. Contact your elected officials and voice your concern over this issue. Record whatever response you get from their office and make sure you understand their position on this issue.
3. Either write a letter to the editor or respond to an already existing letter that addresses this issue. Be sure to counter any false commentary or reporting and stand against any dismissal of your concerns. We must stand our ground.
4. Contact the White House and register your complaint of taxpayer dollars being used to amass combat power for Obama's governmental agencies.

It is WE the People who have ordained this government and we will not tolerate it violating our unalienable rights.
